

Proper clothing and identification

Evaluation and training for staff

All work deserves its distinguished dress for good morals and easy identification.

With good clothing our patients feel the confidence of professionalism.

With a visible identification the staff is protected against possible misunderstandings.

The respect we show our patients is the best way to start changing the lives of the little angels who need our care and protection.

l agree with the dress policies:
Name: Wadeleine Rodnguez Garca Staff name initials: WR

